Pentecost Sunday

June 9, 2019

“In the same way, the Spirit too comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groaning. And the one who searches hearts knows what is the intention of the Spirit, because he intercedes for the holy ones according to God’s will.”

The promised Spirit has come and gives life to the church. Pentecost was not just an event or experience, but the beginning of a movement which continues to this very moment. The visible of wind, fire and noise may have subsided but the event becomes our experience.

The movement which began in the upper room, spread to the streets of Jerusalem, and moves us today. Our church, enlivened and motivated by the same Spirit, summons us to go out and transform a world seemingly distant from the gospel and its values. The Spirit, living in us, yearns to touch the lives of others. Because of the Holy Spirit we too have been changed, let the Spirit move you, or as Paul says ‘don’t stifle the Spirit.’ We are accountable.

A Three Garden Tour and a Farm-to-Table Dinner

Thursday, June 20, 2019, 3-8 pm

"How sweet are your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth" - Psalm 119:103

Since they were gifted to the Edmundites in 1954, the gardens of Alys Enders have been preserved and cultivated for the enjoyment of generations both near and far. This natural beauty, surrounded by the grandeur of the Atlantic Ocean, has helped countless men and women have an encounter with God, that divine artist whose creativity and generosity gave us the beauty of every flower.

This year, we invite you on a tour of three local gardens where we will have the chance to experience the variety and splendor of our Creator. The afternoon begins at Stone Acres Farm where we will tour the grounds of the historic farm. From there, we will visit the home garden of Master Gardener Noreen Kepple. The afternoon will conclude in the gardens of Enders Island with a farm to table dinner—featuring items grown right here on Enders Island. Noreen Kepple will give a presentation on the importance of the pollinators who work round the clock to keep the gardens in bloom.

About 224 North Main Street

Come visit a quiet oasis and observe what a small garden can demonstrate. The gardens at 224 North Main Street exhibit raised vegetable beds, perennials, natives and herbs. The gardens provide a home for birds, beneficial insects and pollinators. There are touches of whimsy throughout with many container gardens as well. Peaceful and pesticide free manifesting best practices in gardening. You may even see "Manny" the resident chipmunk making his rounds!

About Stone Acres Farm

Dating back to 1765, Stone Acres Farm is an iconic property and former dairy farm located in coastal Stonington, Connecticut. The farm originally consisted of approximately 225 acres and has been in continual operation since before the Revolutionary War. During most of the 19th century, Stone Acres Farm provided produce to the landowners and the community during the thriving steamship and railroad trade in Stonington.

In addition to its orchards, vegetable gardens, chicken coops, and the dairy farm, Stone Acres Farm has beautiful ornamental gardens dating back to the early 19th century. Many of the plants are still standing today, including the quarter mile of boxwood bushes that frame the formal garden. The gazebo, fish pond, and rose arbors located in the formal garden were first placed there in the late 1800s. The property is currently home to over forty varieties of daffodils and hundreds of varieties of plants, flowers and trees many of which were gifts from the Brooklyn Botanic Garden in New York.
